DAILY EMPIRE,

PIKE'S PEAK.

Five hundred sales from our border, west, on a desert bare and cold.

And a heavy hand cart rolled.

And at evening when he sought repose, On ye prairie damp and bleak,

He lay where ye sleeping west wind blows From the north, and ye grey wolf howl

Ye tread his lonely cheek,

At early dawn from his cheerless bed, With limbs benumbed, and an aching head,

He started up, and ye grey wolf howl Afar to her secret hold.

He toddled along from work to work, And numberless hardships bore—

'Till weary at last—'I heard his speak—'Oh! when shall I see my folks speak—' And valley of golden eye.

He saw ye 'Punk,' and a yellow haze Quick over his vision rolled!

Ye saw ye 'Punk,' and a yellow haze Quick over his vision rolled!

Ye saw ye 'Punk,' and a yellow haze Quick over his vision rolled!

Ye saw ye 'Punk,' and a yellow haze Quick over his vision rolled!
